Project Description:

- Become immersed in the Ponderosa pine, wetlands, meadow steppe and riparian habitat dominated Turnbull National Wildlife Refuge. Turnbull National Wildlife Refuge encompasses over 23,000 acres in eastern Washington on the edge of the Columbia River Basin. It is in the heart of the channeled scablands and just on the edge of the Palouse-prairie step.
- Volunteers will work together to do light maintenance of four existing trails and create a tread for a new connector trail. The four existing trails that require maintenance are all very flat, excluding the Kepple Overlook trail, which gains around 100 feet of elevation.

Offsite Activity Description:

- Host will a guided hike with a ranger on the refuge

Area and Attractions:

- Turnbull is a birder's paradise, as a fly-over spot for over 140 species of migratory birds and a nesting habitat for over 100 species. There are bountiful recreation opportunities within an hour's drive of the refuge, including the Columbia Plateau State Park Trail, which runs through the refuge, Riverside State Park, and the town of Coeur d'Alene.

Travel Details:

- Spokane International Airport, Spokane, Washington is the closest major airport. Airport pick up and drop off is available for volunteers and will be arranged upon confirmation of the trip.
